

Welcome to the North American Corriente Association
Certified Corriente Beef Program

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE PROGRAM

The purpose of the program is:

- 1.) To protect the genetic integrity of the Corriente animals being used and promoted as meat.
- 2.) To help make the NACA more sustainable in the future.
- 3.) To provide added value to the Corriente breed.
- 4.) To provide protection to established NACA beef producers

Rules and regulations:

- 1.) Anyone participating in the CCB Program, must be a current member of the NACA.
- 2.) Membership cost will be $100/year. This will be for the calendar year.
- 3.)
 - A.) Any cattle that are registered, will be automatically approved.
 - B.) Any cattle, other than registered cattle, may be certified if they meet the following criteria:
 - 1.) If they meet the conformation judging guidelines as listed on the NACA website.
*Cattle that do not qualify will be obviously crossbred cattle, or some other breed than Corriente.
- 4.) When an animal is registered with the NACA, the owner will automatically be issued a permanent ear tag with an identifying number and/or design on it. There will be no additional cost to the producer other than the registration fee for this tag.
- 5.) For cattle that are not registered with the NACA, but are qualified to participate, the owner can apply for the identifier tag for a cost of $5 plus $3 (cost of the tag).
- 6.) Either of these tags may be used on any age or sex of cattle.
- 7.) Any money earned by the NACA from the Certified Corriente Beef Program will be used by the association to sustain and market the program.
- 8.) Anyone who is not a member of the NACA will not be allowed to use the official logo or published marketing materials related to this program.
